

Registration is open for the Heteroptera Workshop with option to add tour to Dole Fruit Company and local grower fields!

April 20, 2017
Embassy Suites Monterey Bay - Seaside
Seaside, CA

Growers and Pest Management Consultants are encouraged to attend!

Registration is Open!

Click Here to Register for the Heteroptera Workshop, April 20, which includes:

- Entry to all symposium to the Workshop on April 20
- Workshop materials
- Meals: Breakfast
- Option to add tour with lunch

Please forward to anyone who might be interested in attending.

Topics and Agenda

The workshop will feature presentations on topics including insect resistant management, biological control, dispersal, market regulation and more!

You can view a detailed agenda here.

Who Should Attend

The symposium is intended for anyone involved in the management, and control of Heteropteran pests. This includes spray technicians, landowners and managers, growers, and policy makers.

Accommodations

Participants are encouraged to stay at the Embassy Suites Monterey Bay - Seaside. Reservations include daily hot breakfast and evening reception with drinks.

Click here for more information.

Sponsored by University of California Cooperative Extension, this Symposium promises to draw experts from around the US and the world to discuss these key pests in an interactive and cross disciplinary venue. For more information, visit our Symposium website.

<http://ucanr.edu/sites/2017bugsymposium/>